

Office Fax IF6020

Inkjet Fax with copier

Reliable features and stylish design

The Office Fax IF 6020 offers convenient fax features such as 150 pages memory, an anti-junk fax function as well as group broadcasting. The integrated copy-function makes it perfectly suitable for small businesses or for the use at home.

Special business-focused fax features

- The anti-junk fax function blocks up to ten phone numbers from which you do not want to receive any faxes
- Large 150 page memory saves incoming faxes anytime
- Group broadcasting: send a fax to multiple receivers and store groups of contacts - an efficient tool facilitating your regular mailing activities to dedicated groups of people
- The timer function allows you to postpone the dispatch of your faxes up to 24 hours, which is useful when the recipient can only be reached at a certain time or when you wish to profit from lower telephone tariffs at a given time
- Multicopy up to 9 pages

Space saving and nice design, easy to use

- A small footprint helps save space
- The user navigation makes operation easy
- Simple to set up
